

WEB TEMPLATES LICENSE AGREEMENT

Author: Ciuca Cristian (Criatix)

Product: Sign In & Sign Up Web Templates

Seller: TemplateMonster.com

License

When you buy the product at usual price for 1 site you automatically get the One Time usage license.

The license for 1 site provides the purchaser with a non-exclusive, commercial license to use website templates and themes on one website by you or your client as a final product. The use cases may include websites for personal and commercial use, as well as landing portfolios demonstrating your business offers to the end-users.

If you prefer to use the same item in other projects, please, buy the template/theme again. We also ask you to delete the template/theme files from your computer before transferring the end product to your client.

What you can do:

- Build one End Product for a client, and transfer it to the client.
- Modify or manipulate the Item, or combine it with other works, to suit your End Product
- The client can modify website templates and themes, combining them with other pieces to suit the End Product.

What you can't do:

- Redistribute the product as a website theme, template, in a tool or template, or with source files.
- Bundle it with other items as a website template or website theme compilation.
- You are not allowed to distribute, redistribute, sell, resale, rent, the template files.
- You are not allowed to disclose any order information (such as Order ID, download link etc).

Licensing FAQ

Can I resell the customized template?

No, you can not resell the customized template as a template but you may sell it as a project to your client.

Can I customize the template?

Yes, you can customize the template to any extent needed. You can not use a header of the template for one project though, and images from the template for the other project.

I have customized the template and would like to protect my content by copyright, can I place Copyright informations on the website?

Yes, you can add your copyright to protect your content.
